

Treaty voyages: November

Understanding the Treaty of Waitangi | One day workshop

How can we understand the Treaty of Waitangi and its history in today's context, and how might we apply this understanding to our daily life? Find out about the history of the Treaty—why it was written, what it says, and how we got to be where we are today. Use this knowledge to help make sense of current relationships and politics and to explore where you stand.

WHEN: 9.30am-4pm, Saturday 18 November 2017.

WHERE: Community Law Wellington office (Level 8, 203 Willis Street)

CONTENT: This engaging introductory workshop is suitable for people with all levels of background knowledge. It covers:

- Why have we got a Treaty?
- What does the Treaty say?
- What happened post-Treaty?
- Where we are at now?
- What does this mean for me?

COST: $30 students/unwaged, $60 community sector, $120 private/government sector.

Tea and coffee and snacks will be provided. Please bring your own lunch.

REGISTRATION ESSENTIAL: Email zoe@wclc.org.nz to register. Places are limited so get in quick.

Treaty voyages: How's your organisation (sea)farer? | Half-day Training

An afternoon of training for staff, managers and leaders of community organisations.
