

Groundwork
Facilitating Change

Understanding Te Tiriti o Waitangi

One day workshop - 7 September 2019

Whāia te mātauranga kia mārama - Seek knowledge for understanding

How can we understand Te Tiriti o Waitangi (the Treaty) in today's context, and how might we apply this understanding to our daily life? Find out about the history of Te Tiriti—why it was written, what it says, and how we got to be where we are today. Use this knowledge to help make sense of current relationships and to explore where you stand.

ĀHEA: 9.30am-4.30pm, Saturday 7 September 2019.

KEI HEA: Newtown Community and Cultural Centre (cnr of Rintoul & Colombo Sts)

CONTENT: This engaging introductory workshop is suitable for people with all levels of background knowledge. It covers:

- Why have we got a treaty?
- What does Te Tiriti say?
- What happened post-signing?
- Where we are at now?
- What does this mean for me?

FACILITATOR: Jen Margaret (Pākehā) of Groundwork: Facilitating Change. Jen is a knowledgeable and skilled facilitator who enjoys working with individuals and organisations to support understanding and application of Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

COST: $35 students/unwaged, $75 +gst community sector, $150 +gst private/government. If cost is a barrier to attending, please get in touch.

Tea and coffee and snacks will be provided. Please bring your own lunch.

FUNDRAISER: This workshop is a fundraiser for Tapu te Ranga Marae. All registration fees will be donated to support the rebuilding of the marae.

REGISTRATION: Registration is essential. Email alex@wclc.org.nz to register. Places are limited so get in quick.

community law
free legal help
wellington and hutt valley

Hosted by Community Law Wellington and Hutt Valley with support from the Newtown
Community and Cultural Centre